Theosophical Society.

At a special meeting of the Aloha Branch of the Theosophical Society last evening, to act on the resignation of Dr. A. Marques, president, and Mr. A. Sharpe, treasurer, because of the proposed departure of both from this country, the Branch refused to accept the president's resignation, deciding to keep the office vacant in reserve for him, until such time as he might return to Hawaii, the office of temporary chairman being created instead. As has been before stated in the BULLETIN, Dr. Marques has accepted the leadership of the Theosophical Society of Australia; and will go there because he considers it a larger field of usefulness for him; he expects to leave Honolulu in about two months. Mr. Sharpe will leave here for Australia, also, his former home, by the next Moana.

Censured Bicycle Patrolman.

J. J. Fallon, chief steward of the St. Paul, "read the riot act" to a certain bicycle patrolman in the Police Court yesterday morning.
It seems that he was driving back to the hotel Monday night. He had no lights on his buggy and, being a stranger, was not sure as to the location of the hotel. He was stopped by two native policemen who, when they heard the man was a stranger, told him where to go, and cautioned him very politely to drive slowly.
This Fallon did and when he came near the hotel, a bicycle patrolman, a white man, arrested him. His manner was very discourteous.
In the Police Court, Fallon told the whole story and was discharged. Judge Wilcox censured the patrolman severely.
